

I write to ask urgently that you keep the current FCC ownership rules. Citizens of the U.S. need to hear a broad diversity of ideas and creativity. Expanding the ownership rules will limit our rights to hear free speech. They will work for capitalism, not for the free exchange of information. Please vote against the proposed rules changes. Holly Madsen,, Washington, DC